Mayor Michael J. Bonfanti is pleased to announce the City of Peabody's 8th annual Farmers' Market will be opening this season on Tuesday, July 20, 2010 and running every Tuesday through mid-October. The market hours are 1:00 PM to 6:00 PM. The market is located along Railroad Ave (next to the Little Depot Diner) off of Central Street behind the Courthouse. Parking is abundant and car side service is available.

Penny Srybny of Hereford Valley Farm in Andover will return for the eighth straight season to offer a variety of produce from her market stand. She will have available fresh tomatoes, corn, cucumbers, pickling cucumbers, zucchini, summer squash, lettuce, a variety of beans, basil, and pea pods.

"The Peabody Farmers' Market is another summer time attraction to bring residents and visitors to our downtown," said Mayor Bonfanti. "It is great to see the market grow every year."

The city is always looking to add new food vendors and farmers. If you would like more information on how to become involved please contact Community Development Department at 978-538-5782.
