Disabled Parking Information Guide Available

Mayor Edward A. Bettencourt, Jr. and Police Chief Tom Griffin announced the release of the city's new Disabled Parking Informational Guide. The guide contains an Application for Disabled Parking Placard / Plate along with eligibility guidelines and rules for use.

"Those who may be eligible for disabled parking placards or plates will find this guide very helpful," Mayor Bettencourt said. "The state has a number of guidelines and criteria which are all outlined in a simple to use format."

"Raising awareness for legal disabled placard use and clarifying any confusion is a priority for the Peabody Police Department," said Chief Griffin. "Our hope is that residents benefit from this guide and the valuable information it contains."

To obtain the Disabled Parking Information Guide, residents can visit the Peabody Police Department at 6 Allens Lane, the Peter A. Torigian Senior Center at 75R Central Street or at Peabody City Hall at 24 Lowell Street.
