St. Patrick's Day Breakfast Slated for March 14th

The City of Peabody's Third Annual St. Patrick's Day Breakfast and Roast hosted by City Councilor Tom Gould will take place on Saturday morning March 14th from 9:00 to 11:00AM in the Frank L. Wiggin Auditorium at Peabody City Hall.

The public is welcome to attend the breakfast which will feature Irish music by "Tobin & Leahy" and good natured roasting of some of the city's best known politicians. In addition to laughter and song, Peabody's Irish Person of the Year will once again be honored at this year's breakfast.

The cost is $30 per person and all proceeds benefit the Haven from Hunger. Those interested in attending the breakfast should send a check made payable to the City of Peabody to: St. Patrick's Day Breakfast, City Hall, 24 Lowell Street, Peabody, MA 01960. Please include the number of guests in your party. Please respond no later than March 6th. For more information, call Mary at 978.538.5704.
